CHURCH PRESIDENT NOT LIMIT-ED TO REPUBLICAN VOTES.

McCone's Men Remained Steady With Him Yesterday, While Minority Democrats Flop About Voting For Various Candidates—Senator Rawlins Snowbound In Wyoming.

The possibility of the election of George Q. Cannon to the United States riship grows stronger day by day. Early last week President Cannon's candidacy was but a remote possibility, but now it is conceded it has passed through the realms of probability and is an actual, living fact, which President Cannon's friends no longer deny, and leading Democrats are becoming alarmed at the formidable manner in which President Cannon's candidacy has developed.

It is practically assured that George i, will be able to poll the entire Re-ublican vote when the time comes to publican vote when the time comes to have his name presented, and that there are several Democrats who will vote for him is also a certainty. The attitude of the fusionists is not so well known, but several are certain to leave the son to go to the father, in case there is any change of an election. Among these would be Senator Shurrilli, Bishop Bratawell and N. J. Harris at least, and they might be able to take some others with them.

It was stated yesterday that George

It was stated yesterday that George Q. Cameni's name would be presented to the legislature on Thursday, at the assembling of the Joint assion, and his supporters confidently believe that assembling of the joint assisten, and his supporters coinfidently believe that yotes will flock to his standard imme-diately, giving him possibly seventeen or eighteen votes on the first ballot. Then will come a struggle for suprem-acy between President Cannon and A. W. McCune, for it is certain that no other Democratic candidate will stand even a ghost of a chance to win out when George Q.'s name appears on the voting list.

Mr. McCune recovered practically his entire strength yesterday. In the nine ballots taken during the day, his support stayed by him with a pertinactive that augurs well for his ultimate success, but the minority wing of the Democratic party evinced little tendency to come over into his camp. There was much dancing back and forth by the minority members, but it was indicative of little, save to show their own hopelessness and despair of forth by the minority members, but it was indicative of little, save to show their own hopelessness and despair of arriving at anything in the course they are now pursuing.

Senator Robison's speech, in which he stated that an attempt had been made to make him act as a stool pigeon to entrap and being A. W. McCune, caused a sensation of no small dimensions. The speech was the subject of much speculation and discussion everywhere during the afternoon and evenywhere that what he had said was absolutely true, and that the piot involved men for whom he had hitherto had the greatest respect. It was this which had sent him into Mr. McCune's camp and kept him here. Incidentally it might be noted. Senator Robison came to Sait Lake a King man.

Lester Taylor's change from Frank J. Canton to George Sutherland caused some surprise. It is understood that Mr. Taylor's move was made to express the emphatic disapproval of Representative Law and his methods.

Little change is anticipated in the voting today, as it is now practically assured that the election will come on Tauredny if at all. The spectre of George Q. Canton's candidacy looms large and black upon the horizon, and everyone is waiting anxiously to learn the outcome when at length his name

But he encountered the blizzard in Wyoming, and his telegram of yesterday indicated that there was small chance of getting through the blockade for several days.

Alfalfa Members Caucus.

The Alfalfa club held a brief caucus last evening, after the dissolving of the joint session, and decided to make a strong effort during the few remaining days of the session to push for its passage the bill establishing the office of district attoracy. The bill was introduced largely in the interests of the smaller counties, and the country members are very analous to have the bill passed. It was also decided to call down as much as possible the appropriations for the lens populous counties, so as to decrease to some extent the burden upon the state.

CITIZENS ASSIST OFFICERS IN MAKING AN ARREST.

Thomas Hurley, Charged With Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses, Makes a Gun Play,

An important arrest was made yes torday in the person of Thomas Hurley, who is held at the city jail on the three charges of obtaining money under false pretenses, assault with a deadly weapon and having in possession burgraise pretenses, assault with a deady weapon and having in pessession burgiar tools.

The act leading up to the arrest yesterday occurred on Dec. 16, at Lake Point, when Hurley and a friend secured a night's logsing at the home of Brig Davis. In payment of the bill Hurley presented a check for $18.50, dated Dec. 3, 1898, drawn by himself in fawor of Charles Scanlian on McCornick & Co. and endorsed by Scanlian. Davis cashed the check in lieu of the bill, giving Hurley $17 in cash. Upon presentation at the bank, it was found that Hurley had no funds on deposit.

Yesterday Davis was driving along North Temple, and when near Sixth West, he recognized Hurley. He wanted to arrest him and called on the assistance of Joseph Bull and a deliveryman, who happened along that way. They started after Hurley, who drew a revolver and ordered them to stop. Hurley beat a retreat to his room in the Hunter place, near North Temple, and Fifth West, followed by the men. Mr. Bull arming himself with a carbine from his home. The police department was notified by telephone, and Detectives Sheets and Gillespie went out in the hurry-up wagon.

Hurley was arrested at his room in the Hunter place, first having thrown away his gun. In his room were found several new pairs of trousers and an outilit of burgiar tools, including skeleton keys. Hurley has a partner, but an effort to locate him yesterday was un-

Still More Counterfeiting.

The secret service has unearthed another band of counterfeiters and secured a large quantity of begus bills, which are so eleverly executed that the average person would never suspect them of being spurious. Things of great value are always selected by counterfeiters for imitation, notably the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which has many imitators but not the celebrated Hostetter's Stemach Bit-ters, which has many imitators but no equals for indigestion, dyspepsia, con-stipation, nervousness and general de-bility. THE NEW PROMOTER TALKS OF THE ENTERPRISE.

Has Purchased Seven Devils Property and Will Improve Locality-Means Much to Utah-A Road to Vernal - Passenger Meeting at Omaha-Northern Lines' Cut Met.

While in the city yesterday, Lewis A. Hall, president of the Export Lumber company of New York City, gave defifrom Weiser, Ida., to the Seven Devils copper region, a distance of 100 miles, will be built this year. Mr. Hall is him-self the copper region, a distance of 100 miles, will be built this year. Mr. Hail is himself the promoter of the enterprise, and has just let the contract for the entire piece of work to Mr. L. G. Wilkerson, formerly of Sait Lake. Mr. Hail left laset night for New York to comfer with the Oregon Short Line officials, and arrange for an interchange of business with that road.

When seen at the Knutsford yesterday, Mr. Hail had but little to say concerning the details of the project, but readily stated that the road was an assured fact for 1899. He has recently purchased large interests in the copper fields of the Seven Devils, and has undertaken a great deal of development work in that country, but none of sa great importance as the construction of the much needed railroad. This road was originally planned by a Mr. Bates of Idaho, but Mr. Hall a few says ago purchased the former's entire interest and will push the work forward, backed by his own resources. The Herald's recent dispatch to this effect is corroborated.

A road to the Seven Devils, connerting with the Oregon Short Line, means a great deal to Utah mining interests. An immense lot of ore will be shipped to local smelters for treatment, and in every way Utah is interested in the project. Work will commence as soon as the weather will permit.

PRES. CORNISH INTERVIEWED Explains Situation Regarding Union

Pacific and Short Line. Omaha, Neb., March 7.-W. D. Cornish of New York, president of the Ore-

nish of New York, president of the Oregon Short Line, who is now in the west attending the land sales of the Union Pacific road and impecting the condition of his own road, says that all that will be done for the present has been done in the steps looking to the absorption of the Oregon Short Line by the Union Pacific company. Three-quarters of the Stock of the former road have been exchanged for the stock of the Union Pacific, and this completes the transfer of the property as fully as is now contemplated.

"The Finion Pacific," said Mr. Cornish, "owns a majority of the stock in the Oregon Rallway & Navigation company, and under these conditions the three lines can work together incely without any closer agreement. There is no probability at present of the moving of the Short Line headquarters back to Omaha. There are good reasons why these offices should be kept separated—the Union Pacific in this city, the Short Line at Salt Lake City and the Navigation company at Fortland. and the Navigation company at Port
